A Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Adult Education Offerings

Revitalizing the Small Congregation

Sunday, September 10, 12:30 p.m.

Board chair Judith Warren and consulting minister Peter Boullata participated in an online study offered by the Unitarian Universalist Association this past spring on “revitalizing the smaller congregation.” We found it to be insightful and interesting, and we are eager to share some of what we learned with our friends at the Unitarian Fellowship of London! Bring a brown bag lunch.

What Do You Say After You Say You’re Unitarian?

Sunday October 22, 12:30 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist identity is sometimes a tricky thing to convey to others. How do you summarize our religious philosophy? What can you tell others about the history of our liberal religious movement? What is it about Unitarian Universalism that compels you and commands your loyalty? Bring a brown bag lunch and a willingness to explore how we communicate who we are to others.

Small Group Ministry

September 24, October 29, November 26, December 10:

Sometimes called Chalice Circles or Covenant Groups, small groups are formed for deepening congregation members’ engagement with the spiritual theme of the month and with each other. The purpose of such groups is to make connections with each other and with our deepest selves. In the absence of such a program here at UFL, the Rev. Peter Boullata is willing to lead a drop-in version of Small Group Ministry after worship on Sundays when he is leading worship. Please bring your lunch and an open spirit and mind as we delve deeply into the monthly theme. (Note: There is a twelve person limit. If more than this number drop in, we will divide into more than one group. Contact Peter if you are willing to facilitate a second (or third!) Small Group Ministry circle on these dates.
