Adult Education Offerings

Not For Ourselves Alone
Saturday October 20, 2018
9:30am – 12 noon

Each October in the Unitarian Fellowship of London, we explore the theme of covenant, and re-affirm our congregational covenant. In this adult religious exploration offering, we will read together two essays from Unitarian Universalist thinkers, share our reflections on our reading, and discover how we can deepen our relational promises here at UFL.

An RSVP is necessary to ensure enough materials. Sign up before Wednesday October 17 by emailing the Rev. Peter Boullata at rev.peter.boullata@gmail.com

The book of essays we are drawing from is highly recommended:
Not For Ourselves Alone: Theological Essays on Relationship, Burton D. Carley and Laurel, editors, (Skinner House Books, 2014).
