October's Theme: Covenant

10:45 a.m., 557 Clarke Road, London Ontario

- Sun. Oct. 1. Covenant: First Sunday Potluck
Facilitator: Bob Harrington
A shorter service during which we introduce the month's theme, followed by connecting and conversation. Please bring a brunch food to share. If this is your first time with us, please bring only yourself, you are our guest and most welcome!
- Sun. Oct. 8. Giving Thanks.
Service Leaders: Eileen Howay, Karen Kidd, Edie Delanghe
(A collection will be taken to support the Hospitality Meal at Trinity United Church.)
- Sun. Oct. 15 TBA. Lori Turner-Otte
A *Whole Church Service where we explore this month's theme through music and story. Something for all ages.
- Sun. Oct. 22 Bound in Freedom. Rev. Peter Boullata
Religious liberals cherish our freedom. We also are caught up in a network of relationship with others. In the mutual covenant of our congregational life, how do we balance our individuality with community?
- Sun. Oct. 29 Community of Love, Memory, and Hope: A Service of Remembering. Rev. Peter Boullata
Our covenanted community can include those who have gone before: our familial, religious, and social ancestors, those role models who showed us what was possible for our own lives. On the occasion of Samhain (the basis for our secular holiday of Halloween), the Celtic observance of remembering the dead, you are invited to bring a memento to this service to memorialize somebody you have lost. We will create a sacred table of the objects we bring as we remember those who have preceded us.
